Group Life Insurance Claim Form

How to complete and submit a Group Life Insurance Claim Form

1. Complete Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of the Group Contract Holder Statement portion of the Group Life Insurance Claim Form. Section 1 must be completed if the claim is for an employee/member, or for a dependent of an employee. Please be sure to complete the "Relationship to Employee" block.

For Dependent Term Life coverage on children, the employee is always the beneficiary. For Dependent Term Life coverage on a spouse, the employee is usually the beneficiary, except for certain Group Universal Life and Group Variable Universal Life coverage, in which the employee may be able to specify other beneficiaries.

2. Detach the Beneficiary Statement* and give a copy to each beneficiary. Ask each beneficiary to complete it and return it to you.

If there are multiple beneficiaries, each beneficiary should complete a beneficiary statement. It is only necessary for you to submit one Group Contract Holder Statement, regardless of the number of Beneficiary Statements completed. If you have difficulty obtaining forms from all beneficiaries, please submit the information you have.

4. How to Receive Your Funds

About the Alliance Account: Eligible proceeds from your Prudential claim may be made available to you in an interest-bearing Prudential Alliance Account. With the Alliance Account you will have a flexible way to access your money.

Simply by writing drafts, you can get the funds you need now for immediate expenses, then take as much time as you want to decide what to do with the rest. You may wish to access the money periodically, or all at once.

How It Works: The Alliance Account is an interest-bearing account with draft-writing<sup>1</sup> privileges that allows full access to your funds immediately without any monthly fees. For complete information and eligibility requirements regarding the Alliance Account, please see the information below.

Eligible life claim benefits will be settled into the Alliance Account unless you select an alternate settlement option. (For information about alternate settlement options, see page 7 of this form.)

The Alliance Account gives you flexibility and convenience with all these benefits.

Easy and Immediate Access

Upon approval of the death benefit claim, the full amount of the proceeds payable to you are paid via an interest-bearing Alliance Account established in your name.

Convenience and Flexibility

You can leave the funds in the account for as long as you wish, access any or all of your funds, and transfer funds to another available settlement option at any time and at no cost.

Your Money Continues to Grow

The funds in your Alliance Account begin earning interest immediately and will continue to earn interest until they are withdrawn.<sup>2</sup> The current interest crediting rate is 0.50%, subject to a current minimum of 0.25%.

Advantages of the Alliance Account

Your Funds Are Secure

The Alliance Account is a settlement option under the original life insurance policy and is backed by the financial strength of The Prudential Insurance Company of America. See "How the Alliance Account Works" for details.

No Usage Fees

The Alliance Account has no monthly charges, per draft charges or draft reorder fees. Other fees may apply. See "How the Alliance Account Works" for details.

Multiple Payments – One Account

If you are the beneficiary on more than one life insurance policy or already have an Alliance Account, proceeds will be paid into one account. A key benefit of the Alliance Account is that, as a settlement option, you may be able to pass the claim proceeds balance tax-free to your beneficiary.

Dedicated Customer Support

You can speak directly with a customer service representative between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday–Friday at 800-496-1035. Written inquiries can be sent to Prudential, P.O. Box 13902, Philadelphia, PA 19176. You can also go online or call our automated voice-response system 24 hours a day to check your account balance, request additional drafts and more.

How the Alliance Account Works

Your Funds: All funds are held within Prudential's general account. It is not FDIC insured because it is not a bank account or a bank product. Funds held in the Alliance Account are guaranteed by State Guaranty Associations. Please contact the National Organization of Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Associations (www.nolhga.com) to learn more about coverage limitations on your account. State guaranty fund coverages are not determined by the insurance company.

How Interest Is Earned: The funds in an Alliance Account begin earning interest immediately and will continue to earn interest until all funds are withdrawn. Interest is accrued daily, compounded daily and credited every month. The interest rate may change and will vary over time, subject to a minimum rate that will not change more than once every 90 days. You will be advised in advance of any change to the minimum interest rate via your quarterly Alliance Account statement or by calling Customer Support. The interest rate credited to the Alliance Account is adjusted by Prudential at its discretion based on variable economic factors (including, but not limited to, prevailing market rates for short term demand deposit accounts, bank money market rates and Federal Reserve Interest rates) and may be more or less than the rate Prudential earns on the funds in the account.

Account Statements: You will receive regular (either monthly or quarterly) statements showing your current balance, the interest you earned, the drafts you have written, your current interest rate, and any other account activity. The frequency at which the statements are mailed to you is determined by the activity in your Alliance Account.

Special Service Fees: There are fees for special services, which are subject to change, and include stop payments ($12.00 per draft/$25 maximum for 3 or more per day); cashed draft copy or statement copy ($2.00 per); drafts returned for insufficient funds ($10.00 per draft) and overnight delivery (based on carrier's charge).

Minimum Balance: If the balance falls below $250, you will receive a check for the remaining balance plus interest at the end of the monthly cycle in which the balance fell below $250. You can close the Alliance Account at any time by calling the Customer Service office. A check for the remaining balance and interest will be sent to you. Or, you can close the account by writing an Alliance draft for the balance and cashing it or depositing it at your own bank. Since interest accrues daily, a check for the remaining accrued interest will be sent to you.

Inactive Accounts: State law requires that if there is no account activity and we have had no contact with you regarding your Alliance Account after a number of years (time period varies by state), your Alliance Account may be considered "dormant." If your Alliance Account becomes "dormant," you will be mailed a check for the remaining balance plus interest, at your last address shown on our records. If you do not timely cash that check, your funds will be transferred to the state as unclaimed property. If your funds are transferred to the state, you may claim those funds from the state but you may be charged a fee by the state. Once your funds are transferred to the state, we no longer have any liability or responsibility with respect to your Alliance Account. For Alliance Account funds paid under the Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance program, the treatment of those "dormant" funds may be different.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT YOUR STATE DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE.

About You

Indicate who is claiming the life insurance proceeds. If there is more than one beneficiary, each beneficiary must complete a separate form. We only need one copy of the death certificate. Please note that we will only use phone numbers and email that we collect to keep you updated on the status of your claim.

Tax Certification

Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

You must include a TIN for the beneficiary, this is:

- A Social Security number (SSN) if the beneficiary is an individual or the owner of a sole proprietorship.
- The employer identification number (EIN) if you represent a trust, estate, corporation, partnership, or tax-exempt organization.
- The TIN of the grantor/trustee if you represent a grantor trust, or that of the actual owner of a trust-like entity not recognized as a legal or valid trust under state law.
- If you are a guardian completing this form for someone else, including a minor, be sure to provide that person's SSN.

Backup Withholding

You must tell us if the IRS has notified you that you are subject to backup withholding because you didn't report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return. You are not subject to backup withholding if either (a) you did not receive such a notice from the IRS, (b) the IRS told you that you are no longer subject to a backup withholding order, or (c) you are exempt from such withholding. If you have been notified that you are subject to backup withholding, please check the box as indicated.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA)

Any entity making a payment of U.S. source income must consider whether it is subject to FATCA. A payor must collect documentation about the payee's status or withhold at 30%. Nontaxable payments, such as income tax-free death benefits from nonqualified life insurance contracts, are not subject to FATCA.

Citizenship

You must indicate if you are not a U.S. Person (including resident alien). In that case, you must state the country in which you are a citizen and submit the applicable IRS Form W-8 (BEN, BEN-E, ECI, EXP, IMY). In most situations, the IRS Form W-8BEN will be the appropriate IRS Form W-8.

Understanding Your Options

A claim is not eligible for an Alliance Account when:

- Benefits from all policies total less than $5,000.
- The beneficiary resides outside the U.S., is a minor, corporation, partnership, tax exempt entity, or other ineligible third party.
- The beneficiary is a trust with more than one trustee, the trust is not authorized to own or withdraw funds from a life insurance policy, or the trust is a testamentary trust.
- The person who owned the policy established specific provisions about death benefit payment. In these situations, the claim is paid by check or another option.

You may choose one of the following settlement or payment options as an alternative to Alliance Account.

Lump Sum Payment Options

Prudential offers two types of lump sum payment options. Each option type provides full payment through either a single check or immediate access to the entire proceeds of the policy as described below.

|----------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Proceeds Held At Interest | While proceeds are held at interest, you receive regular interest payments with the right to withdraw the unpaid balance. You may also elect to have interest accumulate. |
| Lump Sum Check            | Receive the full benefit in a single lump sum check.                                                                                                                      |

Installment Payment Options

Prudential also offers a number of deferred payment options, which pay out the proceeds over a period of time that you select (e.g., over your lifetime). If you select a deferred payment option, we will provide you with a written description of the terms of the installment payment option you selected.

|                                          |                                                                                                                                            |
|------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Life Income                       | Monthly payments to you for life.                                                                                                          |
| Life Income with a Certain Period | Monthly payments to you for life with a certain period of guaranteed payments to you or your named beneficiary.                            |
| Fixed Period                      | Payment for an elected number of years, with the right to withdraw the present value of unmade payments.                                   |
| Fixed Amount                      | Payments of a selected amount until the proceeds and interest earned are fully paid to you, with the right to withdraw the unpaid balance. |

The tax treatment of the death benefit may be different depending on the settlement option you choose. Please consult your tax advisor for advice. Should you have any questions about these settlement options, please contact Prudential at (800) 496-1035.
